

RESOURCES FOR HEALTH EDUCATORS

Utah State Office of Education Home Page: <http://www.schools.utah.gov>

USOE Core Curriculum, various lessons, resources, programs, and teacher professional development opportunities.

Utah Education Network, UEN Home Page: <http://www.uen.org>

Health Education Core Curriculum, lesson plans, resources, links, and mailing lists.

Resources for School Health Educators: The following web sites contain valuable information and ideas. However, they have NOT been carefully searched and may contain information that is inappropriate. Please use your discretion when students are involved with the searches.

Indiana Resources for Prevention http://www.drugs.oindiana.edu/misc-links_INprev.html

This site has a number of links to prevention programs, media contact, libraries, drug law enforcement; statistics etc. Focused on Indiana resources.

Health Finder: <http://www.healthfinder.gov>

Your guide to reliable health information, sponsored by the Office of Disease Prevention and Health Promotion. Sponsored by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

Kids Health: <http://www.kidshealth.org/index.html>

The Web's most visited site about children's health

Health Teacher: Teaching Health Concepts and Skills: <http://www.healthteacher.com>

The purpose of Health Teacher is (1) to build health literacy among those who teach health; (2) to help students develop both a knowledge base and a skills base to help them pursue a healthy lifestyle - throughout their life span and (3) provide value to school districts through lower cost of ownership, alignment standards, teacher certification, and ease of implementation.

SAMHSA's Nation Clearinghouse for Drug and Alcohol abuse, treatment, and prevention:

<http://ncadi.samhsa.gov>

Prevention online, PREVLINe: a wide variety of resources on drugs, issues, publications, newsroom, resources for families, youth, schools, workplaces and communities.

Talking with Kids: <http://www.talkingwithkids.com>

Tips for parents and other adults to consider when speaking with young people about health issues.

Kaiser Family Foundation: <http://kff.org>

The Henry J. Kaiser Family Foundation's web site contains information on Health Care, medicaid/SCHIP, Medicare, Costs/Insurance etc. Also includes information on sexuality and research for organizations, parents, and teachers.

The National Campaign to Prevent Teen Pregnancy: <http://www.teenpregnancy.org>

This is the home page for the National Campaign to Prevent Teen Pregnancy and has the very latest research, articles, publications, tips for parents, information for males, etc. An excellent resource.

The Center for Disease Control and Prevention: <http://www.cdc.gov>

This is the home page for the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and contains the latest information on all areas of health and prevention. Your online source for credible health information. Excellent!

American Medical Association: <http://www.ama-assn.org/ama/pub/category/1947.html>

Adolescent Health links: This is a set of links to 26 other organizations dealing with various aspects of adolescent health and mental health issues.

American Cancer Society: <http://www.cancer.org/docroot/home/index.asp>

Information on the American Cancer Society's Health for Success program and lots of information on National Health Education Standards.

Public Broadcasting System: <http://www.pbs.org>

The homepage for Public Broadcasting System includes lots of links for kids and health-related information for everyone.

American Social Health Association: <http://www.ashastd.org>

Information on sexually transmitted diseases, from the American Social Health Associations.

Center for Adolescent and Family Studies: <http://www.educaton.indiana.edu/cas/adol/adol.html>

Adolescence Directory On-Line is an electronic guide to information on adolescent issues. It is a site for Adolescent Students at Indiana University. Educators, counselors, parents, researchers, health practitioners to find Web resources for topics of interest.

Bulimia.com: <http://www.gurze.com>

Information on eating disorders. Ordering information for materials.

Ad Busters: <http://adbusters.org/home/>

This site offers advertising parody and tips for de-constructing ads.

Bad Advertising Country: <http://www.badvertising.org>

Similar to the one above.

AOL Resources: <http://members.aol.com>

The homepage for AOL. Search for eating disorders or other health issue to find resources.